

MODERN SLAVERY AND HUMAN TRAFFICKING

INTRODUCTION FROM THE MANAGING DIRECTOR OF FUJIFILM EUROPE GMBH

FUJIFILM Europe GmbH is a distributor of, and service provider in relation to products in Europe for a range of industries including photographic technologies, optical technologies, medical systems, graphic systems, and industrial products.

We are a part of the group of companies owned by FUJIFILM Corporation (“FUJIFILM Group”). Our ultimate parent company is FUJIFILM Holdings Corporation. Both FUJIFILM Holdings Corporation and FUJIFILM Corporation have their head offices in Japan.

The FUJIFILM Group are dedicated to developing mutually beneficial partnership relationships with suppliers. Through our procurement policies and procedures the FUJIFILM Group foster social and environmental responsibility, while encouraging fair trade and free enterprise in international markets.

The FUJIFILM Group are committed to improving our practices to combat any kind of slavery and human trafficking. Companies within the FUJIFILM Group are required to conduct their activities in accordance with the FUJIFILM Group Charter for Corporate Behaviour and the FUJIFILM Group Code of Conduct which cover a variety of ethical business principles including the prevention of slavery and human trafficking in the activities of such companies. As part of the FUJIFILM Group’s commitment to these principles, in June 2015 FUJIFILM Corporation adopted the FUJIFILM Corporate Social Responsibility Procurement Guidelines for suppliers (“Supplier Guidelines”) under which suppliers to FUJIFILM Corporation are requested to commit to ethical business principles in a number of areas where human rights can be affected. These include the prohibition of forced labour, child labour and inhumane treatment. Whilst progress has been made, the Supplier Guidelines are still in the process of being rolled out to FUJIFILM Group companies outside of Asia. However FUJIFILM Corporation has made further progress in its local CSR Procurement activities and its commitment to respect for human rights as evidenced by the following articles:

ORGANISATION STRUCTURE

FUJIFILM Europe GmbH is incorporated in Germany. Here, FUJIFILM Europe GmbH performs its European strategic headquarter functions and operates the FUJIFILM Group’s business for Medical and Graphic Systems via its German branch. In addition, FUJIFILM Europe GmbH operates individual country branches for the FUJIFILM Group’s business segments in the Czech Republic, Poland and Slovakia, as well as in Portugal and Spain, and in Austria (jointly “Local Markets”).

Beginning in 1934 as Japan’s pioneering photographic film maker, the FUJIFILM Group has leveraged its imaging and information technology to become a global presence known for innovation in healthcare, graphic arts, optical devices, highly functional 2 materials and other high-tech areas. The FUJIFILM Group has over 30,000 employees worldwide and operates in most countries around the world. The FUJIFILM Group has a global annual turnover of around £7 billion.

OUR BUSINESS

FUJIFILM Europe GmbH's business is organised into six business units: Photo Imaging, Electronic Imaging, Optical Devices, Medical Systems, Graphic Systems, and Industrial Products. Via those business units we supply FUJIFILM branded products and services to the Local Markets, and to a limited extent also to the UK.

OUR SUPPLY CHAINS

We source our main products from FUJIFILM Corporation or with respect to paper and pre-sensitised plates photographic chemicals, press-room or pre-press chemicals and accessories from other FUJIFILM Group manufacturing companies based in Europe. Based on our supply chain concept we source all such supplies via FUJIFILM Europe B.V., except for product or accessory supplies solely for our Local Markets and for FUJIFILM Europe GmbH's own consumption which are sourced locally along with any services we require.

OUR POLICIES ON SLAVERY AND HUMAN TRAFFICKING

We are committed to ensuring that there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in our supply chains or in any part of our business. We comply with the FUJIFILM Group Charter for Corporate Behaviour and FUJIFILM Group Code of Conduct which reflects our commitment to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business relationships and to implementing and promoting this approach in our supply chains.

As a number of the products we sell are ultimately sourced from FUJIFILM Corporation, this is also reflected in their adoption of the Supplier Guidelines as referred to above.

OUR PROCESSES TO PREVENT SLAVERY AND HUMAN TRAFFICKING

All FUJIFILM Group staff around the world are required to abide by the FUJIFILM Group Charter for Corporate Behaviour and FUJIFILM Group Code of Conduct in order to ensure that all FUJIFILM Group companies exhibit and promote ethical business activities. FUJIFILM Group companies are required to complete an annual checklist which requires them to answer questions on their measures to prevent forced and child labour in connection with their compliance with the FUJIFILM Group Charter for Corporate Behaviour and FUJIFILM Group Code of Conduct.

For the products that we sell that are ultimately sourced from FUJIFILM Corporation (if any), FUJIFILM Corporation procurement staff are expected to identify and assess potential risk areas in the supply chain and work with suppliers in those areas in order to seek to establish that those suppliers act in accordance with the Supplier Guidelines.

As part of the initiatives in FUJIFILM Europe generally to identify and manage risk, for the products that we sell that are ultimately sourced from other FUJIFILM Group companies based in Europe and for those products and services that we source ourselves, our staff and those of the other FUJIFILM companies based in Europe work to mitigate the risk of slavery and human trafficking occurring in its supply chains in line with the FUJIFILM Group Charter for Corporate Behaviour and FUJIFILM Group Code of Conduct; products which FUJIFILM Europe GmbH sources locally are destined for the Local Markets only and are not sold to the UK.

SUPPLIER ADHERENCE TO OUR VALUES AND ETHICS

We promote action to ban slavery and human trafficking from our supply chain.

For the products that we sell that are ultimately sourced from FUJIFILM Corporation (if any), suppliers of those products are requested to commit to the ethical business principles set out in the Supplier Guidelines. Further, FUJIFILM Corporation aim to reflect those standards in cooperation agreements with suppliers and business partners. The Fujifilm Supplier CSR Checklist was being used by the suppliers and business partners responsible for over 70% of the total procurement amount for each business division in FUJIFILM Corporation and the FUJIFILM group companies within China by the end of March 2017. During the current financial year FUJIFILM Corporation are following up with suppliers and business partners who have already completed the checklist to confirm their responses against their actual activities. After this work is completed, FUJIFILM Corporation will expand the use of the checklist to other suppliers and business partners.

For the products that we sell that are ultimately sourced from other FUJIFILM Group companies based in Europe, for products that we source ourselves and for services, our activities and those of such other FUJIFILM companies consist of working with our or their suppliers to understand their approach to ensuring that there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in their supply chains or in any part of their business.

TRAINING

To ensure an understanding of the risks of modern slavery and human trafficking in our supply chains and our business, we work with our procurement staff to ensure they act ethically and with integrity in their interactions with our suppliers and to implement and promote this approach in our supply chains.

FURTHER STEPS

At a FUJIFILM Group level, FUJIFILM Holdings Corporation are now finalising a Human Rights Policy to strengthen its commitment to important human rights matters such as the elimination of slavery and human trafficking and expect to publish this during the current financial year. In addition it is anticipated that suppliers and business partners to FUJIFILM companies in North America will start utilising the Supplier Guidelines during the current financial year with those to FUJIFILM's European companies to follow later in 2018.

Following a review of the effectiveness of the steps we have taken to ensure that there is no slavery or human trafficking in our supply chains we intend to take the following further steps to combat slavery and human trafficking:

- Adoption of the Supplier Guidelines into our own procurement activities once introduced into Europe by the FUJIFILM Group
- More detailed awareness activities around modern slavery and human trafficking for all our procurement staff

This statement is made pursuant to section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes the slavery and human trafficking statement for FUJIFILM Europe GmbH for the financial year ending 31 March 2017.
